

What Does Motherhood Mean to You?

Mother #1: "Motherhood means to me..."

Mother #2: "To me, motherhood means quite a lot of different things."

Mother #3: "Motherhood means to me — madness. It's always crazy. A constant struggle."

Mother #4: "To me I think motherhood is watching my daughter, basically, learn and grow and have different experiences with people."

Mother #5: "I would say motherhood is a bonding and nurturing experience like no other that you can get from nowhere else besides your mom."

Mother #6: "I think motherhood has been the most joyful and fulfilling thing I've ever done in my life. I love being a mother."

Mother #3: "Late nights, early mornings."

Mother #2: "I feel like it's a gift that has been given to you."

Mother #3: "Rushing off to school. Getting homework done. Making lunches."

Mother #1: "It's the most rewarding job that you can have. It's just the best thing, having kids, and watching them grow up and become successful."

Mother #6: "I love watching my children grow and learn and turn into wonderful upstanding citizens."

Mother #2: "It's a huge life changing experience. It means being up at 2 a.m. with a crying baby who's sick. Cleaning owies. Just making sure your kids are happy, taken care of."

Mother #3: "All rolled together, it's the best experience of my life."

Mother #6: "It's a great opportunity. It's a great opportunity to be a better person myself.

Because of the example I need to set for my children."
