

What Makes Your Mom Special?

Daughter #1: "My mom is special because she is..."

Daughter #2: "She's insane..."

Daughter #3: "My mom is a go-getter."

Daughter #4: "So many things make my mom special."

Daughter #2: "She has the funniest jokes and she always knows when to make me laugh."

Daughter #5: "Throughout my whole life I've always known that she's my biggest fan."

Son #1: "Something that makes my mom special is..."

Daughter #1: "I can always call her with anything, even now that I'm a mother."

Son #1: "She was just an angel and she treated me so well when I wasn't treating her the best and she's had so much patience and love and I learned a lot from that."

Daughter #3: "She's on her feet all hours of the day."

Daughter #1: "I still call her, 'Mom, how do you make, you know, whatever recipe?'"

Daughter #3: "And she does everything she can to make us as happy as possible."

Daughter #6: "I think the most special part about my mom is that she was always teaching us to learn something new."

Daughter #7: "My mother is awesome. She's awesome. She always, always has a smile on her face."

Daughter #6: "Playing guitar or gardening or sewing or cooking, basically just teaching us we could do anything."

Daughter #8: "What makes my mom special is that she is a survivor and a fighter and a believer of things possible and impossible."

Daughter #4: "Probably her outlook on life and the way she loves me."

Daughter: #1: "Just that she's always there, that's what's special about her. She's always there for me."

Daughter #9: “She has always stopped and dropped everything to make sure that she was providing for me and my siblings.”

Daughter # 4: “She’s just vibrant. She takes every day as it is and she’s so encouraging and motivated and strong, very strong woman.”

Daughter #7: “It doesn’t matter what adversity she’s faced in her life, she always, always maintains an aura of kindness, and I think that’s the thing I appreciate about her the most.”

Daughter #5: “I can always go to her and I know that no matter what I’ve done wrong, no matter what I have to tell her she’s always going to be there with open arms for me.”

Daughter #10: “To this day, no matter what it is, if her phone rings she’s answering it and I know that. And she doesn’t forget anything, she always remembers everything and she’s always there when you need her.”

Daughter #6: “Everything that I do is all about teaching and I think that was the best thing that she passed on to me and I think that’s what makes her special.”

Daughter #9: “Just taking really good care of us.”

Daughter #1: “Well mom I want to wish you a happy Mother’s Day, you’re absolutely the best mom ever. I don’t know what I’d do without you. I’m so glad I’m going to have you around for a long time, love you, happy Mother’s Day.”

Daughter #6: “Happy Mother’s Day mom, I love you, I love everything that you do for me, thanks for being a great grandma and thanks for always listening and coming to work and bringing me lunch and just being who you are.”

Daughter #5: “Hi mom, I’d just like to say happy Mother’s Day, you’re the best mother I could ever ask for, I would never change anything.”

Daughter #3: “I love you so much mom, I love you more than words can say. Thank you so much for being the best mom in the whole entire world. I love you.”

Daughter #7: “Mom, thank you for always being such a great example, and thank you for being the person that you are. I love you very much and happy Mother’s Day.”

Daughter #10: “Mom, I love you, happy Mother’s Day, thank you for everything that you’ve ever done for me and my children, you did the very best that you ever could have possibly done and it was more than enough and I am grateful beyond words. Thank you, I love you.”

Daughter #4: “Happy Mother’s Day mom you’re the best and I love you and I will always love you.”

Daughter #2: “Momma I love you so much thank you for everything, all the support you’ve given me, happy Mother’s Day.”
